CLAIM AMERICANS WERE PAID TO HIDE ARABIC

Berlin, Sept. 2.—City wireless to Tuckerton, N. J.—The Overseas News Agency says: "Several German newspapers hint that if the American passport on the Arabic did not pay for their passage it probably would be paid for by the British government to enable them to travel to and fro as a protection to British ships carrying munitions of war. The newspapers also call attention to the fact that the British government at the outbreak of the Russo-Japanese war warned its subjects not to travel on ships of the belligerent nations, because the government would be unable to guarantee their safety or hold anyone responsible in case they were lost."

ESTRANGED WIFE HIRES NEGROES TO SLAY HER HUSBAND

Mrs. Mohr, Newport Society Woman, Held Without Bail, Accused of Causing Death of Dr. Mohr.

REWARD OF $5,000 PROMISED ASSASSINS

Physician and Office Assistant Waylaid While Automobile Riding; Jealousy Motive for Crime.

[By Evening Herald Special Wire] Providence, R. I., Sept. 2.—Accused by her alleged accomplices—three negroes—Elizabeth Tiffany Blair Mohr today was held without bail on the charge of having incited the murder of her husband, Dr. C. Franklin Mohr, a wealthy and well-known physician at this city and Newport. The arraignment took place at Warren.

Mrs. Mohr was fatally shot while on an automobile trip from this city to Newport on Tuesday night. The negroes charged with the murder are George W. Heals, the chauffeur who was driving Dr. Mohr's car at the time of the shooting; Cecil V. Brown, formerly employed as a hatter by Dr. Mohr, and Henry Spellman, half brother of Brown. Mrs. Mohr denied the accusation.

Miss Emily G. Burger, the doctor's assistant, who was in the automobile, was also wounded. According to Brown's story, as given out by the police, Mrs. Mohr promised several weeks ago that she would pay him $5,000 if he would help her to kill Dr. Mohr, promising to pay him $5,000 nine days after the killing was accomplished. He said he asked Spellman to help him out and brought his half-brother in to talk the matter over with Mrs. Mohr. Heals was present at this interview by request of Mrs. Mohr, Brown said. Spellman was to receive $1,000 and Brown and Heals $2,000 each.

The arrangements for the shooting were carried out in detail, according to the confession. At a designated spot on the Nayatt road Heals started the engine of the automobile and Brown and Spellman, who had approached on a motorcycle, crept through the bushes and fired at the occupants of the car.

Brown declared that Mrs. Mohr told him to be sure to kill the doctor and to kill Miss Burger if he could. His instructions, he said, were to shoot anybody in the tonneau, whether it was Miss Burger or Florence Ormsby, a maid in Dr. Mohr's office.

All of the negroes under arrest said that Mrs. Mohr told them that she was jealous of Dr. Mohr and was desirous of getting possession of his estate, which she believed would be denied her if she obtained a divorce. The three male prisoners were charged with murder and also were held without bail. All four pleaded not guilty. They were locked up at Warren pending a hearing set for September 15.
